

Spirits of Ansett - 2008

The "Spirits of Ansett" luncheon for 2008 will be held on Thursday, 9th October in the Mitchell Room at the Marion Hotel. Unfortunately the price has increased from $29.00 to $32.00. This price is still very competitive with other places around Adelaide who have a three course meal. Alcohol is not included.

Once again we will have to limit the numbers to 90 due to space requirements. Please get in early if you want to attend.

The "Spirits of Ansett" lunches will continue while there is still an interest from you.

Best wishes,
John Schulze

Aviation Museum

The museum is a registered Museum run by a membership of around 100 people. There are some highly skilled trades people, who, over the years have done a lot of restoration work on aircraft which have come out of crash sites. However one does not have to be skilled to participate and have something to do. Apart from being in an aircraft environment, in which we have spent most of our working lives, we are constantly meeting people who have had a big input into the industry throughout their lives.

We are now in a unique situation in that there are three major Museums in the one street: namely the Maritime Museum, The National Rail Museum and The South Australian Aviation Museum.

Well worth a visit!

Prints for Sale

Anyone who is interested in a print by Ken Jenning who was a long-term employee of Ansett Australia. Ken was an expert Aircraft Spray Painter with experience in the use of modern high-tech materials.

Ken presented the original painting to the Sir Reginald Ansett Transport museum in 2006.

The cost of the print is $21.00. There will be a limited number of theses available at this price.

Helen Smith

It is just over a year since Helen Smith died so courageously.

She loved her family and friends and made the most of her life with us.

We all remember her in our own ways and at different times. I have many special memories, including the way in which she confronted death.

I have written the story of the way she wanted to die, when faced with her fate, and included it in a book of stories, Suddenly I'm Sixty, reflecting on life.

Facing death is a subject rarely confronted, although more people are now asking for information. Raising an awareness of the choices at the end of life is increasingly important as medical science provides more options for dealing with incurable illness.

Helen has shown us a way here. She talked to many, if not most, of her family and friends, about the different stages of her illness. The story, Soror, takes us to her end.

As a memorial to her, all proceeds of this limited keepsake edition will be donated to a Trust Fund within the Kangaroo Island Health Service- Palliative Care, overseen by Sharon Clark, Community Health Nurse.

Dr. Anne Colman (Helen's sister)

Suddenly I'm sixty – Limited Keepsake Edition - $25.00 (Copies will be available at the Luncheon)
